

MATT LUCAS
Assistant Varsity Coach
mlucas@pylusd.org

Matt Lucas-Assistant Coach begins his 6th season coaching with this being his third year coaching at El Dorado High School. Matt previously played under Coach Gullotti and Coach Moore from 1994 to 1996. After graduating he went on to play at Cal State LA until 2000 under Coach John Herbold. His playing career then led him to play for the Houston Astros organization for four years from 2000 to 2003. In 2005 he made a career change from playing to coaching and became the assistant varsity coach for Laguna Beach High School. He then went on to become the Walnut High School pitching coach from 2006 to 2007. We are proud to have Matt returning to us as the El Dorado pitching coach. Additionally, Matt teaches AP Macroeconomics & US History here at El Dorado High School. Matt and his wife Julie reside in Costa Mesa with their 2 year-old daughter Abbey & they are expecting their 2nd child in May
